

FIRST AIDER

This course aims to prepare professionals, alerting on key risks of their work activities and apply the techniques of rescuer, seeking a successful work in care for the injured. Some accidents could be avoided, but when they occur makes up some necessary knowledge and information to help keep alive and protected victim until the arrival of specialized care.

CONTENT

JODAL TRAINING | FIRST AIDER | 40 HOURS

- Definition;
- Legislation;
- Basic Steps Of Rescuer;
- Primary Assessment Of The Injured;
- Vital Signs And Support;
- Screenplay By Priorities In Care;
- Physical Examinations;
- Cardiovascular Reanimation/ CPR;
- Airway Clearance By Foreign Bodies;
- Bleeding / Hemorrhage;
- Fractures;
- Procedure Front Of The Fainting;
- Traumatic Lesions;
- Encephalic Cerebral Accident;
- Amputation Of Limb;
- Drowning;
- In Shock;
- Activation Of Emergency Service;
- Alarm And Communication System;
- Personal Protective Equipment;
- Classification And Assistance To Burns;
- Electric Shock;
- Transportation Of Victims;
- Theoretical Assessment.

